Robert Hoberman joined the firm in 1981, became a partner four years later and now serves as the firm's managing partner. Robert has over 30 years of management consulting experience working with all types of businesses. His expertise ranges from structuring business deals for both domestic and foreign entities, tax planning, and estate and gift planning, valuations, including the use of trusts. He also has extensive experience dealing with banks and financial institutions, as well as tremendous knowledge of data processing, systems analysis, and consulting for commercial applications.

A graduate of Syracuse University with a B.S. degree in Accounting, Robert is a Certified Public Accountant in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Florida. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the New York State Society of CPAs (NYSSCPA).

Robert previously received the Humanitarian of the Year award for his work with the NYC Chapter of The Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America (NYC CCFA). He currently serves as a board member for the Lester M. Entin Foundation.

Robert regularly presents timely tax updates to various organizations, including the New York State Academy of Trial Lawyers. He is an active member of MGI Worldwide and MGI North America, an international accounting network of independent audit, tax, and accounting firms, and IR Global, a multi-disciplinary professional services network that provides legal, accounting, and financial services to companies and individuals around the world. Robert authored the "Guide for Foreign Companies Doing Business in the U.S." and presented several webinars on this topic. This comprehensive guide helps companies successfully navigate the complex United States tax responsibilities. In addition, Robert regularly publishes articles in Rapaport Magazine to address timely tax and financial issues related to the jewelry industry.
